GEORGIA FRONTIERE

President

The 1983 season was a year of great achievement for the Los Angeles Rams and their owner, Georgia Frontiere. It was a year which saw the Rams leading the competitive National Football Conference West for much of the year before securing a wild card berth in the playoffs.

It was a season that saw Mrs. Frontiere scoring successes both on and off the field as she streamlined her front office, blending it into an efficient, smooth-functioning team.

The Rams' owner kept her pledge to return the Rams to a position of prominence, but the former Greater Los Angeles Press Club Headliner of the Year's goal continues to be a Super Bowl berth.

Mrs. Frontiere begins her sixth year at the helm of the Rams. She has hired most of the current front office personnel as well as coach John Robinson.

Mrs. Frontiere added to her string of community service achievements, receiving awards from the Ben Gurion University of the Negev and the Orange County Athletic Directors Assn. for her commitment to high school sports and law enforcement. She was also presented the Vincent T. Lombardi Varsity Scouting Hall of Fame Award by the Los Angeles Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

She serves on the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Boys and Girls Club and is an active supporter of the Retinitis Pigmentosa International Society, the National Athletic Health Institute and the St. Jude Children's Research Center.

Mrs. Frontiere is married to Emmy Award-winning composer Dominic Frontiere, has two children, Chip Rosenbloom and Lucia Rodriguez and a grandson, William Carroll Rodriguez.

JOHN SHAW Vice President-Finance

John Shaw, who enters his fifth year of service with the Rams, has become one of the senior members of the organization's front office staff. The 32-year-old native of Brooklyn is a practicing tax attorney and certified public accountant.

Before joining the Rams, Shaw was with the accounting firm of Arthur Anderson & Co. Prior to that, he practiced law in California.

Shaw advises team President Georgia Frontiere on financial matters, including club investments, player contracts and legal affairs. He also works closely with other members of the Ram management team.

This avid sports fan attended high school in San Diego and attended the University of San Diego from which he graduated in 1973 with a degree in accounting. Shaw continued his education at New York University, securing a law degree in 1976.

John and his wife Suzanne, a student majoring in fashion design at UCLA, live in Brentwood and have a daughter, Alexandra.

JACK FAULKNER Administrator of Football Operations

Celebrating his 30th anniversary in the NFL, Jack Faulkner is regarded as one of the most astute football minds in the game and is renowned for his ability to evaluate talent.

And Faulkner has done it all since becoming the defensive coach for the Rams under Sid Gilman back in 1955. He has been a General Manager and Head Coach (Denver Broncos) defensive coordinator (New Orleans Saints) defensive backfield coach (San Diego Chargers and Minnesota Vikings) and backfield coach of the 1979 Super Bowl Ram team. He has also been Director of Player Personnel for the New Orleans Saints and Director of Pro Scouting for the Rams as well as assistant General Manager.

Born in Youngstown, Ohio, on April 4, 1926, Faulkner played three years of High School football, basketball and track, before joining the United States Marine Corps, where he saw action during World War II. He finished High School after the war and then enrolled at Miami University of Ohio (1946).

In 1962, while with Denver, Faulkner was chosen "Coach of the Year" for the American Football League by both the Associated Press and United Press International.

In 1980 Faulkner was honored by being named to the Hall of Fame of Youngstown Ohio High School Football.

Jack and his wife Betty have two children, Cathy (32) and Jon (21) and also three grandchildren.

He was a standout linebacker for three seasons at Miami and played on the 1947-1948 Sun Bowl championship teams. Upon his graduation from Miami, Faulkner joined the coaching staff at University of Cincinnati. He handled the backs there and assumed the same role with the Rams in '55.

DICK BEAM Director of Operations

Dick Beam begins his fourth year as Director of Operations for the Rams and is responsible for a myriad of duties. Beam oversees the club budget, supervises the daily operation of Rams Park, arranges for team travel and serves as liaison with the team and its Anaheim Stadium home as well as other administrative functions.

The 48-year-old former star athlete from Whittier was formerly director of administration for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He moved to Tampa to join head coach John McKay in 1976. Beam was an assistant to McKay at USC in 1971. Beam served as a Trojan assistant for four years before moving to Tampa where he was an administrative aide to McKay before becoming the team's director of administration.

Beam is a devoted long distance runner, who's participated in numerous races, including the Orange Bowl Marathon in 1981.

He is a graduate of Whittier High, where he won varsity letters in football, baseball and basketball. He moved on to Whittier College where he played under George Allen and Don Coryell and was an all-league performer in 1958.

Beam and his wife Dorothy have one son, Donn, and a daughter, Cathy.

JOHN MATH Director of Player Personnel

John Math's primary duties as Director of Player Personnel are overseeing the Rams' involvement in the annual college draft and player evaluation. Math begins his fifth year in that capacity.

Math joined the Rams as a scout in March, 1977. He has earned acclaim for his ability to foresee development in young athletes with pro football potential.

The 53-year-old native of San Gabriel attended Alhambra High School before moving on to the University of California, Berkeley. At California (1950-54), Math was a defensive back under the legendary Pappy Waldorf.

Math coached at Glendale College from 1960 to 1963, then coached at Utah State for two seasons. He joined the Houston Oilers the following season as a scout. Math remained in that position until he joined the Rams.

Math and his wife Maxine live in San Juan Capistrano. They have five children, John Jr., Gayle, Wanda, Nancy and Cathy.

JAY ZYGMUNT Legal Counsel

Jay Zygmunt is a key member of the Rams' management whose duties include negotiating and advising on player contracts, club legal matters and consulting on financial affairs. He is also responsible for management/player relations and is on the Board of Directors of the NFL Insurance Co. This 32-year old native of Chicago is a member of the Sports Lawyers' Assn., and the Forum Committee on Entertainment & Sports Industries, as well as a member of the American Bar Assn.

Zygmunt, who begins his third year with Rams, attended Chicago's Brother Rice High School and the University of Notre Dame.

Zygmunt is also a certified public accountant. He is single and lives in Marina Del Rey.

MARSHALL KLEIN Director of Community Relations

Since the hiring of Marshall Klein in the spring of 1983 the community relations department has grown from just an idea to one of the vital phases of the Ram organization.

Countless speaking engagements, emceeing Ram shows both after home games and on the road with the touring Rams Alta-Dena Show and acting as liaison with various charities are just some of Klein's responsibilities. He is also involved with the club's overall marketing effort and works closely with the public relations department.

The 42-year-old Klein had spent his entire adult life with the Los Angeles Times before being hired by the Rams last year.

He had been with the Times for 21 years, the last 15 as Sports Editor of the Times' Orange County Edition.

Klein has been a part-time lecturer in the communications and journalism departments at Cal State Fullerton and Cal State Long Beach. He hasalso taught at Cal State Dominguez Hills, Golden West and Orange Coast colleges.

In the past, he has done sports commentary and feature work on KOCE (Channel 50) and KDOC (Channel 56) in Orange County. An accomplished speaker, he has long been a popular performer at luncheons and banquets throughout Southern California.

He is on the Board of Directors of the Orange County Sports Hall of Fame; the Chapman College Athletic Board; and the National Wheelchair Sports Foundation. He was the Chairman of the Board of the Orange County Sportswriters Assn. for eight years.

A native of Pittsburgh, Klein graduated from John H. Francis Polytechnic High in Sun Valley (Calif.) and attended both Los Angeles City and Los Angeles Valley College.

He and his wife, Katie make their home in Tustin with their children, Philip, Michael, Benjamin and Molly.

PETE DONOVAN Director of Public Relations

Pete Donovan is now in his second season as the Director of Public Relations for the Los Angeles Rams after accepting the position on April 6, 1983.

Among Donovan's responsibilities are handling the media, all Ram publications, credentials and operations of the Anaheim Stadium press box. During the off-season, his emphasis switches to marketing phases of the organization.

The 41-year-old Donovan came to the Rams after six years as a sportswriter for the Los Angeles Times where he covered the California Angels, collegiate sports and wrote feature articles.

A graduate of Cal State Fullerton, Donovan was a sportswriter for the Fullerton News-Tribune; the sports publicist for Cypress College; and the Director of Public Relations for the Los Angeles Strings of World Team Tennis before joining the Times in 1977.

He has taught a Sports Marketing class at Cal State Fullerton and lectured on the subject throughout Southern California. Donovan is the President of the Orange County Sports Hall of Fame and a founder of the Orange County Sportswriters Assn.

Born April 18, 1943 in Brooklyn, New York, Donovan played baseball and basketball at Liberty (N.Y.) High School.

Donovan and his wife, Janet, live in Fullerton, Ca. They have seven children: Kym, Rena, Robbie, Shelly, Stacey, Debbie and Andrea.

JOHN ROBINSON
Head Coach

Anytime a new coach takes over a National Football League team, change is almost sure to occur. And when the coach is coming out of the collegiate ranks, the changes figure to be even more dramatic.

And that certainly was the case for John Robinson and the Los Angeles Rams in 1983. Robinson did much more than change his weekend wardrobe from USC Cardinal and Gold to Ram Blue and Gold. Robinson renovated.

He employed a new offense — the single back — and drafted a great player to man it in Eric Dickerson. He employed a new defense — the 3-4 — and along the way asked his two best defenders, Jack Youngblood and Nolan Cromwell, to change positions. He brought in seven new assistant coaches. He replaced aging veterans with youngsters. He plugged here and patched there.

Most important, Robinson changed the Rams' record. After going 2-7 and 6-10 the previous two seasons, the Rams jumped back into the playoffs with a 9-7 record. They upset Dallas in the first round, 24-17, before losing the next week in Washington.

Robinson was named Coach of the Year in the NFC (UPI) and hailed by experts throughout the country as the prototype NFL coach for today — a motivator, a salesman, a communicator, a teacher and a strategist.

One of the most popular figures in Southern California sports history, Robinson's frank and easy-going style has endeared him to fans, players and the media.

Robinson had a brilliant seven-year career as the head coach at the University of Southern California. During that time, the Trojans won 81.9% of their games; captured a national championship (1978); had an undefeated season (1979); took three Pac-10 Conference titles; and won four bowl games in five appearances.

Robinson became the 17th head coach in the 38-year history of the Rams on Valentine's Day in 1983. The 48-year-old Robinson (July 25, 1935) is the third intercollegiate coach recruited by the Rams. The others were Sid Gillman (1955 from the University of Cincinnati) and Tommy Prothro (1971 from UCLA).

Robinson was raised in San Mateo, Ca., where he played football and baseball at Serra High, earning Catholic All-American and All-Northern California honors as an end on the football team.

Robinson graduated from the University of Oregon in 1958 with a bachelor's degree in education. He was a letterman end when the Ducks won the Pacific Coast Conference title in 1957 and he played briefly in Oregon's 10-7 loss to Ohio State in the Rose Bowl.

His coaching experience spans 24 years. He was an assistant at Oregon (1960-71), on John McKay's USC staff (1972-74) and one season as an aide to his boyhood friend, John Madden, at the Oakland Raiders (1975) before succeeding McKay at USC in 1976.

Robinson was acclaimed by the Washington, D.C., Touchdown Club as the 1979 Coach of the Year, and also Pac-10 and West Coast Coach of the Year in both 1976 and 1978. In 1976, he also was the first rookie head coach to take a team to the Rose Bowl in 25 years.

On the field, Robinson produced seven consecutive powerful offensive units, meanwhile perpetuating USC's heritage of defensive excellence.

In 1976, 1977 and in 1979, the Trojans finished third, fourth and fourth in the country in total offense and the 1979 team gained more yards than any team in the school's history.

Defensively, the Trojans finished first in the Pac-10 four times and once in team defense under Robinson, while the 1980 team led the conference in every single team defensive category.

Along the way, Robinson coached two Heisman Trophy winners: Charlie White, now with the Cleveland Browns and Marcus Allen, now with the Raiders in the National Football League.

Allen, the 1982 NFL Rookie of the Year and All-NFL in many selections, was the first 2,000-yard rusher in collegiate annals, shattering the NCAA single season mark with 2,342 yards and a 212.9 yards-a-game average.

Robinson resigned as the Trojans' coach on Nov. 23, 1982. He accepted a position as Senior Vice President of University Relations for USC before taking the Rams' job.

Robinson and his wife, Barbara, now live in Pasadena. They have four children. They are daughters, Teresa 24, and Lynn 22, and sons, David 19, and Christopher 17.

BOB BAKER
Quarterback Coach

After three seasons of heading up the powerful Arizona State offense, Bob Baker moved into the National Football League as the Rams' Quarterback Coach in 1983.

In 1981, the Sun Devils led the nation in total yardage (5,486) and broke all Pac-10 offensive records.

A 1951 graduate of Ball State (Indiana), Baker coached on the high school level at four different places — Muncie, Royerton, Ft. Wayne Southside and Anderson Madison Heights.

He then moved on to the college ranks, serving stints at Illinois, Indiana and Michigan State in the Big 10. At Indiana, Baker was on Coach John Pont's staff in 1968 when the Hoosiers reached the Rose Bowl.

His next step was with the Calgary Stampeders in the Canadian Football League where he was the head coach.

Baker was born Nov. 28, 1927 in Bluffton, Ind. He and his wife, Alyce, have four daughters — Lisa, Rebecca, Sue and Debbie. They make their home in Anaheim.

LARRY BROOKS
Assistant Defensive Line Coach

Larry Brooks will help Marv Goux coach the defensive line again this season, a role he handled in 1983 after his retirement from playing.

Brooks was one of the great Ram stars of recent years. He played 11 seasons for the Rams at defensive tackle and was named to the Pro Bowl five times.

A 14th-round draft choice out of Virginia State in Petersburg in 1972, Brooks played 131 games for the Rams, 122 as a starter. He was named All-Pro in 1977, '78 and '79. Brooks performed in the Pro Bowl from 1976 through 1980.

He played sparingly in 1982 after undergoing knee surgery and announced his retirement last summer.

The 34-year-old Brooks was born in Prince George, Va. He starred in football and track at Prince George High School.

He makes his home in Fountain Valley with his wife, Colleen, and son, Larry, Jr.

MARV GOUX
Defensive Line Coach

A distinctive 30-year association between Marv Goux and the University of Southern California ended last year when Goux chose to join his former Trojan boss, John Robinson, on the Rams' staff.

And Goux never missed a beat. He took over the Rams' defensive line and brought his own fiery brand of coaching to veterans and rookies alike. The overall play of the line contributed significantly to the improved Ram defense in 1983.

As both a player and a coach, Goux has been an extraordinarily fierce competitor, who while tough on the field has exhibited unusual sportsmanship after the game. At USC, Goux made it a tradition to personally congratulate each player on every opposing team to beat the Trojans.

At USC, Goux coached 12 first-team All-Americans, including Gary Jeter, who has been reunited with his college coach this season as a Ram. Goux's other All-Americans were John Grant, Charles Weaver, George Achica, Ron Mix, Marlin and Mike McKeever, Dan Ficca, Damon Bame, Tim Rossovich, Jimmy Gunn and Al Cowlings.

The 52-year-old Goux (Sept. 8, 1932) first came to USC in 1952 when he started at linebacker for the Rose Bowl team that beat Wisconsin, 7-0. He was a junior college All-American at Ventura JC in 1951. Although only 5-10 and 185 pounds, Goux started for three years as a Trojan (1952, 1954 and 1955 — he was injured in 1953).

In his final two seasons, he went both ways, playing center and linebacker. Goux is just one of two Trojans to twice win the Davis-Teschke Award, given annually to the most inspirational player on the team. He was also co-captain of the 1955 team.

After graduating from USC, Goux coached Carpinteria High School in Carpinteria, Ca., to the small school CIF finals with a 9-1 record in 1956.

The following year, he was hired by new head coach Don Clark as head freshman coach and varsity assistant, thus beginning a 26-year run as a Trojan coach.

USC won five national championships during Goux's stay on the coaching staff.

Born in Santa Barbara, Goux now resides in Long Beach.

GIL HASKELL
Special Teams Coach

The difficult task of coaching the special teams is handled by Gil Haskell, who is beginning his second season with the Rams. Haskell joined the Rams in 1983 after coaching special teams for five seasons at USC under John Robinson.

In his last two years with the Trojans, he also coached the wide receivers.

Haskell came to USC after nine years at St. Ignatius High School in San Francisco where he turned in a 34-15 record as head coach the last five seasons after spending four as an assistant. He was also the track coach four years, winning three Catholic Athletic League titles.

Haskell began his coaching career at Riordan High (San Francisco), serving as line coach for three years. At Riordan, he also coached the track team.

A standout defensive back at San Francisco State, he was all-conference as a senior and a second-team All-Coast pick. San Franciso State won three Far West Conference championships while Haskell was there.

Born September 24, 1943, Haskell played football and baseball at St. Ignatius. He was a halfback and defensive back on three St. Ignatius championship teams and a catcher on two title-winning baseball squads.

Haskell's uncle, the late Dr. William O'Grady, was a part owner of the San Francisco 49ers and before coming to USC in 1978, he had not missed a 49er home game in 22 years.

Born in San Francisco, Haskell makes his home in Huntington Beach, Ca.

HUDSON HOUCK
Offensive Line Coach

Hudson Houck is known for his ability to develop both offensive linemen individually and offensive lines collectively. He gained that reputation at USC — where he had seven first-team All-Americans — and enhanced it last year in his first season with the Rams.

Two members of the Ram line — guard Kent Hill and tackle Jackie Slater — were selected to the Pro Bowl. Many football experts felt a third member of that unit, Dennis Harrah, should have been on the team, too. The other two starters, tackle Bill Bain and center Doug Smith, had the best years of their careers.

Put them all together and you have a line that gave up the fewest sacks in the National Football League (23, which tied the Miami Dolphins) and paved the way for Eric Dickerson to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,808 yards as a rookie.

Houck was the first man hired by John Robinson when Robinson took over at USC in 1975. After being named the new Rams' head coach in 1983, Robinson immediately hired Houck and Marv Goux from his USC staff.

Born January 7, 1943, Houck played and coached under John McKay at USC. He was a reserve center on the 1962 Trojan national championship team.

He graduated from USC in 1965 with a degree in physical education. Houck then became a teacher and assistant football coach at Crescenta Valley (Ca.) High School in 1967 and 1969. Twice his coaching career was interrupted by service in the United States Army.

Houck returned to USC in 1970 and spent two years as head freshman coach and varsity graduate assistant. From 1973 through 1975, he was the offensive line coach of Stanford before being hired by Robinson late that year.

A native of Los Angeles, Houck, his wife Patti, and their son Troy live in Long Beach.

VIC RAPP
Tight End Coach/Special Pro Assignment Scout

Vic Rapp joins the Rams this year in a dual role as coach (with the tight ends) and scout (for special assignments).

A native of Marionville, Missouri, he attended Southwest Missouri State where he played football. He later received a degree from the University of Missouri.

Rapp spent nine years in the high school coaching ranks. He became an assistant at Missouri in '67 and was at the university until 1971. He was the offensive coordinator for the Edmonton Eskimos of the CFL from 1972 through 1976.

Rapp was the head coach of the British Columbia Lions the next six years (1977-1982) where he compiled a record of 53-39-4. Twice his teams were Western Conference finalists and in the three times the Lions were in the playoffs.

Last year, Rapp worked with the Houston Oilers as the Special Teams and Tight End Coach. He was born Dec. 23, 1932.

JIMMY RAYE
Offensive Coordinator and Receivers Coach

After being the passing game coordinator and receiver coach in 1983, Jimmy Raye has been named the Offensive Coordinator for the 1984 Rams.

Raye who is known for his exactness and attention to detail, is in his second season with the Rams.

The Rams lured Raye away from the Atlanta Falcons last year, where he coached Pro Bowl performers Alfred Jenkins and Junior Miller. This will be his fourth NFL team, as he has been an assistant with the San Francisco 49ers, the Detroit Lions and Atlanta. Prior to that he spent five seasons as a college assistant, first at his alma mater Michigan State and later at the University of Wyoming (1976).

As a player, Raye quarterbacked Michigan State to a pair of Big 10 titles and one national championship, while appearing in one Rose Bowl. He played defensive back for the Rams and the Philadelphia Eagles before turning to coaching.

Raye's first pro assignment was coaching the receivers with San Francisco (1977). He then spent two seasons (1978-79) working with Detroit's running backs and three more years as the receiver coach in Atlanta.

The 38-year old Raye was born in Fayetteville, N.C. (3/26/46) and now lives in Anaheim, Ca. Raye and his wife, Edwena, are the parents of two children, Robin, 17 and Jimmy III, 15.

STEVE SHAFER
Defensive Back Coach

In his first season as the Rams' Defensive Back Coach, Steve Shafer saw more changes in his depth chart than one would normally see over several years.

The returning starters at cornerback, Pat Thomas and Rod Perry, were traded. Nolan Cromwell and Johnnie Johnson switched spots at safety. Then injuries popped up during the season, causing more changes.

Through it all, the unit emerged a strong one. Cromwell and Johnson both won all-pro recognition while the addition of Pro Bowler Gary Green should make Shafer's second year on the job even more enjoyable.

After coaching each of the defensive positions — line, linebackers and secondary — in eight seasons at San Diego State, Shafer joined the Rams in 1983.

Born Dec. 8, 1940, in Glendale, Ca., Shafer played quarterback at Burbank High School where he graduated in 1959. After two years at College of the Sequoias, he moved on to Utah State where he played both quarterback and defensive back in 1961 and 1962.

Drafted by the San Francisco 49ers, Shafer chose to play for the British Columbia Lions in the Canadian Football League. He played five years in Canada where he also was the Athletic Director and head of the Physical Education Department at Westminster High School in British Columbia.

He began his coaching career at the College of San Mateo in 1968 and became the head coach there in 1973. During two seasons, he compiled a 15-6-1 record before moving to San Diego State in 1975.

Shafer and his wife, Jane, live in Anaheim with their children, Don, 20, and Shawn 17.

FRITZ SHURMUR
Defensive Coordinator and Inside Linebacker Coach

The senior member of the Rams' coaching staff, Fritz Shurmur begins his 10th season in the NFL this year and his third with the Rams.

Shurmur was the defensive coordinator last season when the Rams improved dramatically, moving up 12 places in the league rankings (from 27th to 15th)

After coaching the defensive line in 1982, Shurmur took over the inside linebackers in the Rams' 3-4 defense in 1983.

Shurmur came to the Rams after four seasons with the New England Patriots as their defensive line coach. He was also the Patriots' defensive coordinator his last two seasons there. In 1979, Shurmur's defensive line totaled 57 quarterback sacks, tops in the NFL.

Shurmur began his NFL coaching career with the Detroit Lions. He coached the Lions' defensive line in 1975 and 1976 and became defensive coordinator in 1977.

Born July 15, 1932, in Riverview, Mich., Shurmur attended Wyandotte (Mich.) High and Albion College. Shurmur was named All-Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association as a center as well as the conference's MVP award. An all-conference baseball player, too, Shurmur graduated in 1954 with a degree in physical education and political science, and earned his master's degree in educational administration.

He served as an assistant football coach and head swimming coach in 1956 at Albion College until 1962 when he became an assistant football coach at the University of Wyoming.

He coached the defensive line through 1970 and then became head coach. He was Wyoming's head coach for four seasons (1971-1974) before joining the Lions in 1975.

Shurmur and wife Peggy Jane live in Diamond Bar, Ca. They have three children: Sally Ann, Scott and Susan Jane.

BRUCE SNYDER
Running Back Coach

Bruce Snyder joined the staff of the Los Angeles Rams in 1983 after serving seven years as the head coach at Utah State.

In his rookie NFL season, Snyder coached another rookie, Eric Dickerson, who set five Ram records, led the league in rushing and was a consensus All-Pro pick.

During his time at Utah State, Snyder posted a 39-38-1 record.

Twice the Aggies won the championship of the Pacific Coast Athletic Association. Utah State was annually among the nation's leaders in total offense and in 1979 when Utah State was 9-2, the Aggies averaged 31.5 points per game.

Prior to taking the job in Logan, Utah, Snyder was the offensive backfield coach at USC for two seasons (1974-75) where he worked with such notable runners as Anthony Davis and Ricky Bell.

A one-time fullback at the University of Oregon and a 1963 graduate of that school, Snyder began his coaching career at his alma mater and worked six seasons under Jerry Frei. At Oregon, he coached San Diego Charger Quarterback Dan Fouts and Bobby Moore (Ahman Rashad), recently retired from the Minnesota Vikings.

In 1972, he went to New Mexico State where he was the offensive coordinator. The following year he moved to Utah State, again serving as offensive coordinator.

Born in Santa Monica, Ca., (March 14, 1940), Snyder attended El Monte High School.

Snyder and his wife, Linda, have three daughters: Jennifer, Tracy and Paige. They live in Placentia.

FRED WHITTINGHAM
Outside Linebacker Coach

Fred Whittingham was responsible for the tight ends and special teams in 1982, but was moved over to defense with the outside linebackers for 1983.

The switch was a natural for Whittingham, a pro linebacker for eight seasons with four different clubs.

Whittingham began his professional playing career with the Rams in 1964. He then played for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1965 and 1966; the New Orleans Saints in 1967 and 1968; the Dallas Cowboys in 1969 and 1970 and the Eagles once again in 1971.

Following his playing career, Whittingham spent nine seasons as a coach at Brigham Young University, the last as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator.

Born on Feb. 4, 1942, in Boston, Mass., Whittingham attended Warwick (R.I.) High School before enrolling at BYU in 1957. He sat out a year and transferred to Cal Poly San Luis Obispo where he played three seasons as a linebacker (1960-62). He was signed by the Rams as a free agent in 1963, but missed the season because of an injury.

Whittingham and his wife, Nancy, live in Santa Ana, Ca. They have five children; Kyle, Cary, Fred Jr., Brady and Julie.

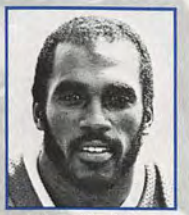
IN MEMORIAM



Kirk Collins

Few players seemed to have a brighter future in the National Football League last season than Kirk Collins. Young and talented, he had moved into the starting lineup for the Rams at left cornerback and responded with five interceptions in the first four games, a pace that would have given him 20 for the year and a league record. Off the field, he and his wife, Ruby, had just had their first child, a son named Christopher. Collins pulled a hamstring in the fourth week of the season and, while undergoing tests, doctors discovered a tumor that was malignant. Six months later, at the age of 25, Kirk Collins died of cancer. Said Rams' President Georgia Frontiere: "Kirk was an important part of the heart and soul of the Rams and his loss will be felt by all of us." Said Coach John Robinson: "He was a very talented and vital human being. He will be deeply missed."

PRO: One of the most dominating defensive players in the history of the National Football League . . . Has twice been named the NFC Defensive Player of the Year by Kansas City's Committee of 101 . . . Seven times voted to the Pro Bowl (1973-1979) . . . Six times chosen All-NFC . . . Has led the Rams in quarterback scks each of the past five seasons, including 1983 when he had 10½ . . . He has won the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award as the Most Valuable Player on the Rams an unprecedented three times . . . In terms of service, he is fourth in seasons played and in games behind Merlin Olsen (208 games, 15 seasons), Charlie Cowan (206, 15) and Joe Scibelli (202, 15) . . . Youngblood has played in a total of 187 straight games, second longest consecutive streak in club history behind Olsen's 198 . . . Has not missed a game since being drafted on the first round in '71 and not been out of the starting lineup since midway through the '72 season . . . In '83, he set the tone for the season by recording two sacks and putting constant pressure on the quarterback as the Rams opened the year with a 16-6 win over the Giants . . . In the regular-season finale against New Orleans, he had big sack vs. Ken Stabler that started Rams on right track and proved to be difference in game (26-24 Rams victory) . . . Youngblood, though, is much more than numbers and honors . . . He's the team's defensive captain and unquestionably one of its leaders . . . He was asked to move from an outside end in a four-man line last year to inside end in a three-man . . . He did so and responded in magnificent fashion . . . One of the more remarkable feats in recent football lore involves Youngblood . . . RAMS 27, Atlanta Falcons 21

Anaheim Stadium, Oct. 16

Rams come from behind to win third straight when Ferragamo throws a two-yard touchdown pass to Guman with 17 seconds left in game. A 22-yard punt return by Johnnie Johnson set the Rams up with 2:15 remaining at their own 43. Passes to Barber (17 yards) and Farmer (12 yards) plus interference penalty on Grant set up the winning touchdown. Dickerson held to 64 yards, but Ferragamo is 23 of 36 for 247 yards and the defense allows just 268 net yards.

THE RAMS STORY: 1937-1983

1937 On Feb. 13, the National Football League grants a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Hugo Bezdek is named head coach. As the league's rookie franchise, Rams finish with a 1-10-0 record. Bob Kelley is named radio play-by-play announcer at start of season.

1938 Assistant coach Art Lewis takes over team after three losses and Rams win three of remaining seven games.

1939 Earl "Dutch" Clark becomes head coach. Rams hit .500 mark for first time with 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joins team as rookie tailback and wins Joe Carr Trophy as NFL's official Most Valuable Player.

1940 Team drops back to 4-6-1 record. Johnny Drake, powerful Ram fullback, is named to first team All-NFL.

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr. purchase Rams in June and hire, as general manager, Billy Evans. Team wins first two games but drops next nine to finish in cellar.

1942 Evans resigns before 1942 season. Charles "Chile" Walsh replaces Art Lewis as assistant coach. Lt. Reeves and Major Levy depart to enter armed forces. Bob Kelly is named club secretary. Team finishes 5-6-0.

1943 Clark resigns. Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime difficulties. Reeves buys out Levy.

1944 Chile Walsh becomes general manager and appoints Buff Donelli as head coach. Pickup team finishes 4-6-0.

1945 Donelli joins military service. Walsh names his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach. Third round draft choice (a future) Bob Waterfield from UCLA joins team as T-formation quarterback and leads Rams to 9-1-0 season for first divisional title in team's history. On icy field, Rams defeat Washington Redskins, 15-14, at Cleveland for world title. Waterfield becomes first player to receive unanimous vote for official NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh is named coach of the year. Eddie Kotal joins team as chief scout and Bill John begins 29-year tenure as business manager.

1946 Reeves moves franchise to Los Angeles early in the year. After disappointing 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resign.

1947 Reeves assumes duties of general manager. Bob Snyder is named head coach with Joe Stydahar as new assistant. Team is talent-heavy but injury-ridden in 6-6-0 season. Reeves sells part interests to former partner Levy and to Edwin and Harold Pauley and Hal Seley.

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joins staff as advisory coach. On Sept. 3, Snyder resigns and Clark Shaughnessy becomes head coach. Team wins four of last five to post 6-5-1 mark.

1949 Team wins first six games, then hangs on to win first divisional title since moving west. Heavy rain holds down L.A. crowd as Philadelphia Eagles skid to 14-0 win over Rams in NFL title game. Rookie Norm Van Brocklin joins team and give Rams top-notch one-two quarterback punch. Elroy Hirsch has fine rookie year.

1950 NFL absorbs AAC, leaving Rams as lone pro team in Los Angeles after four years of two-league existence. In February, Stydahar becomes head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. Club opens new offices on Beverly Boulevard. Bill Granholm begins 18-year tenure as equipment manager. Team sets 22 league records in rolling to conference title tie. Waterfield and end Tom Fears lead playoff win over Bears, 24-14, but following week in Cleveland, Lou Groza's late field goal stops Rams' title hopes, 30-28.

1951 Rams win third straight conference title on final day of season, then defeat Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on 73-yard pass, Van Brocklin to Fears, for first world title since moving to L.A.

1952 After team loses three straight preseason games and drops league opener by big score, Stydahar resigns. He is replaced as head coach by Hamp Pool. Team loses two of next three, but wins last eight to tie for conference title. Rams lose playoff in Detroit. Rams trade 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter, who then enters Army for two years. Waterfield retires.

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passes away. Team compiles 8-3-1 record, losing three games by total of eight points to finish third in conference. Rams defeat world champ Lions in both games.

1954 Bonus choice Bill Wade and tradee Les Richter both join Rams as rookies two years after going from college into military service. Team has disappointing 6-5-1 mark. All assistant coaches resign. Pool soon follows suit.

1955 On Jan. 26, Rams hire Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. Fine defensive year and clutch field goal kicking by Richter give team hard-fought 8-3-1 record for conference title. Cleveland wins title game at Coliseum by one-sided score.

1956 In form reversal, team loses five consecutive early-season games and finishes in cellar tie with 4-8 record.

1957 Ram owners name former Ram publicist Pete Rozelle as general manager. Team loses squeakers on road to 49ers and Lions, finishing 6-6-0, but only two games behind conference leaders.

1958 In preseason trade, Van Brocklin goes to Eagles. Bill Wade sets many Ram passing marks en route to 8-4-0 year.

1959 Team has general letdown and many injuries for worst season since 1937, finishing 2-10-0. Ollie Matson, acquired in big trade, is workhorse at fullback. On last day of season, Gillman and staff resign.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle is named NFL commissioner. Elroy Hirsch replaces Rozelle as Rams general manager. Bob Waterfield is named Ram head coach. Team finishes 4-7-1.

1961 Rams trade Bill Wade, Del Shofner, John Guzik for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow and 1962 first draft choice, which makes it possible to draft both Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen. Revamped Rams finish strongly after slow start, but still show 4-10-0 deficit.

1962 Rams lose four of first five games by narrow margins, then show only occasional surges of success en route to 1-12-1 year. Waterfield resigns after eighth game. Harland Svare named interim head coach. On Dec.27, in closed auction, Reeves reacquires control of Rams, purchasing full interests of co-owners Pauley, Levy, Seley and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sells 49% interest in Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare is retained. Les Richter retires before season. After 0-5 record, Gabriel is reinstated as starting QB and plays last nine games without relief, guiding team to 5-4 mark and season record of 5-9-0.

1964 Rams sign 10-year pact to play in "new look" Coliseum's "stadium-within-a-stadium." Fourteen rookies make the season squad. Club finishes fifth with 5-7-2 record.

1965 After winning only one of first 10, Rams take three of last four against top two teams in each conference, but Svare is dismissed.

1966 After a court fight, George Allen is released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears to become head coach of the Rams. NFL and AFL merge in spring. Bob Kelley, "Voice of the Rams" since the club's beginning in 1937 dies in September. Team finishes 8-6.

1967 After 17 years on Beverly Boulevard, club moves to new building on Pico. Training camp is also moved to California State College at Fullerton after five years at Chapman College in Orange. Equipment manager Bill Granholm leaves club after 18 years to take position in league office. Rams record first unbeaten preseason in history with six wins, including victories over first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. Team completes finest win-loss season ever with 11-1-2 league record to win Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955, then loses to Green Bay in Western Conference Championship Game.

1968 After playoff win over Cleveland in January, team finishes regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1 mark. Attendance is over one million for second straight year and Ram defense sets new 14-game NFL record for fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen is dismissed as head coach, but is re-hired two weeks later.

1969 After 20 years with the Rams as a player, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch leaves club to become athletic director at the University of Wisconsin. He is replaced by Public Relations Director Jack Teele, and John Sanders becomes Assistant General Manager. Team wins Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game, 23-20. Quarterback Roman Gabriel is unanimous choice as the NFL's Most Valuable Player.

1970 Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas in January heads Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With the completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams join San Francisco, Atlanta and New Orleans in the Western Division of the National Conference of the new 26-team National Football League. Rams finish second to 49ers with 9-4-1 record. George Allen's contract is not renewed.

1971 On April 15, owner Daniel F. Reeves dies of cancer in New York. His longtime friend and business associate, William A. Barnes, becomes President and General Manager. Tommy Prothro replaces Allen. Playing the toughest schedule in the NFL, the Rams finish with an 8-5-1 record, second to 49ers in the NFC West.

1972 In a history-making move, Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom trades the Baltimore franchise to Robert Irsay in exchange for the Rams. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves. The transaction was completed and announced on July 14. Rosenbloom, the most successful owner in the NFL over the last two decades, brings with him to Los Angeles Don Klosterman, Rosenbloom's general manager in Baltimore. After five years at Cal State Fullerton, Rams move training camp site to Cal State Long Beach. After 6-7-1 season, all coaches are dismissed.

1973 An observer in '72, Rosenbloom begins to make changes early in 1973, and they pay off quickly. His choice for head coach, former Detroit assistant Chuck Knox, leads team to 12-2 season, winningest in Rams history, and Knox becomes "Coach of the Year," Roman Gabriel is traded to Philadelphia and the new quarterback, former San Diego Charger John Hadl, is NFC "Player of the Year." Rams win NFC West title, but lose in first round of playoffs to Dallas. Other changes introduced by Rosenbloom include return to blue and gold uniforms. Club returns to Cal State Fullerton for summer training.

1974 Carroll Rosenbloom's son, Steve takes over as Assistant to the President. After 3-2 start, Rams trade John Hadl to Green Bay for five draft choices in bold move that stuns the football world. Hadl's backup, James Harris, becomes starter and leads team to 10-4 record, its second straight NFC Western title and its first playoff victory since 1951 (a 19-10 win over Washington) before the Rams bow to Minnesota, 14-10, in NFC title game.

1975 With defense allowing second fewest points in NFL history over a 14-game season (135), Rams win third straight NFC Western title by completing 12-2 season. After playoff victory over St. Louis, however, they bow to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game. The 34-8 record over the last three years is best in the NFL.

1976 Rams win NFC West title for fourth straight year with 10-3-1 record, then beat Dallas, 14-12, for their first playoff victory on the road before 24-13 NFC title game loss at Minnesota. Quarterback injuries mar season and rookie Pat Haden becomes fourth different playoff QB in four years under Knox. Rams' 351 points is highest in NFC.

1977 Rams spearhead new Coliseum configuration which reduces capacity from 91,038 to 71,039. With Lawrence McCutcheon setting new club career rushing record of 5,523 yards, the Rams (10-4) roll to their fifth straight division title before 14-7 playoff loss to Minnesota in Coliseum. Following the campaign Knox resigns to take Buffalo Bills head coaching post.

1978 On Feb. 1, Rosenbloom hires George Allen but releases Allen after second preseason game. Ray Malavasi becomes head coach and leads club to 12-4 mark for the sixth straight division title (tying NFL record). Rams beat Minnesota, 34-10, in playoff but lose NFC title to Dallas. Rams also announce move to Anaheim Stadium beginning in 1980.

1979 Carroll Rosenbloom dies April 2 and his widow, Georgia, becomes majority owner. Club moves to Rams Park in Anaheim, where offices and practice facilities are together. Despite multitude of injuries, team wins 7th straight division title to set NFL record, then beats Dallas (21-19) and Tampa Bay (9-0) in NFC Playoffs. Rams lose to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV, 31-19.

1980 With Anaheim Stadium's capacity set at 69,045, Rams sell out last six home games and finish with 11-5 record. Rams lead NFL in rushing for first time since 1957, gaining 2,799 yards. Rams set 15 club records and tie three others. Nolan Cromwell named consensus All-NFL and receives award as NFC Defensive Player of the Year. Rams enter playoffs as wild card and lose to Dallas, 34-13.

1981 Rams finish 6-10, missing playoffs for the first time since 1972. Nolan Cromwell and LeRoy Irvin named All-NFL. Irvin sets NFL record with 207 punt return yards in 37-35 win over Atlanta. Wendell Tyler rushes for 1,074 yards and ties Elroy Hirsch's club record of 17 touchdowns in a season. Rams sell out first seven regular season games at Anaheim Stadium.

1982 NFL players' strike wipes out seven games of the regular season schedule and the Rams finish last in the NFC with a 2-7 record. QB Bert Jones, acquired in draft day trade from Baltimore, misses last 5 games with a neck injury. In his place, Vince Ferragamo throws for 509 yards vs. Chicago, second highest in league history. Following the season Malavasi is dismissed.

1983 In one of the most dramatic turnaround years in NFL history, Georgia Frontiere begins by hiring former USC Coach John Robinson in February. Revamped front office engineers a dozen off-season trades. Eric Dickerson is drafted on the first round in April. Robinson installs new offense (single back) and new defense (3-4) while Frontiere signs all players on roster. Rams go 9-7 and enter playoffs as wild card team, beating Dallas in Texas, 24-17, before losing to Redskins in Washington. Dickerson breaks NFL rookie rushing record (1,808 yards), sets five Ram records and is consensus All-Pro. Cromwell, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Dickerson make Pro Bowl. Robinson named NFC Coach of the Year.

1984 Rams continue aggressive approach during the off-season, acquiring All-Pro cornerback Gary Green, running back Dwayne Crutchfield and the rights to world-class sprinter Ron Brown.
